DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's amendment, formal drawings, and response have been received in application serial number 09/727,019.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-3, 5-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Musinger 6,228,110 in view of Roberts et al. 5,545,209. Musinger discloses mounting a stent upon an expandable member having a length greater than the length of the stent (col. 7, line 20); covering the stent and expandable member with a moveable sheath which is disposed in a co-axial arrangement over the stent and expandable member (col. 3, lines 61-67); advancing the stent and expandable member into the area of treatment in the body vessel; retracting the sheath to expose the mounted stent on the expandable member; inflating the expandable member to expand the stent within the body vessel; and deflating the expandable member (see col. 10, lines 19-25) and; a catheter including an elongated catheter shaft having a proximal end and distal end with an inner inflation lumen extending therein; an expandable member having a proximal end and a distal end, a length and a desired inflated diameter disposed near the distal end of the elongated catheter shaft which is in fluid communication with the inner inflation lumen, the expandable member being adapted to receive a stent for mounting thereon; a moveable sheath adapted to cover a portion of the stent during delivery and having an inner lumen with smaller diameter than the desired inflated diameter of the expandable member, however Musinger does not specify that the sheath is movable over a portion of the expandable member so that only a portion of the expandable member not covered by the sheath expands to a desired inflated diameter upon inflation. Roberts teaches a catheter assemble system including a stent and sheath/constraint where in the sheath/constraint is capable of constraining the balloon so that it may be progressively incrementally inflated (see col. 2, lines 32-33 and col. Col. 9, lines 11-27 and Figure 3). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to take the invention of Munsinger and incorporate the methods that only a portion of the expandable member not covered by the sheath expands to a desired inflated diameter upon inflation incrementally as taught by Roberts because it would ensure proper deployment of full expansion of the stent within the vessel.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claim 4 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed 11/4/02 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

6. In response to applicant's argument that the examiner's conclusion of obviousness is based upon improper hindsight reasoning, it must be recognized that any judgment on obviousness is in a sense necessarily a reconstruction based upon hindsight reasoning. But so long as it takes into account only knowledge which was within the level of ordinary skill at the time the claimed invention was made, and does not include knowledge gleaned only from the applicant's disclosure, such a reconstruction is proper. See In re McLaughlin, 443 F.2d 1392, 170 USPQ 209 (CCPA 1971).

7. In response to applicant's argument that there is no suggestion to combine the references, the examiner recognizes that obviousness can only be established by combining or modifying the teachings of the prior art to produce the claimed invention where there is some teaching, suggestion, or motivation to do so found either in the references themselves or in the knowledge generally available to one of ordinary skill in the art. See In re Fine, 837 F.2d 1071, 5 USPQ2d 1596 (Fed. Cir. 1988) and In re Jones, 958 F.2d 347, 21 USPQ2d 1941 (Fed. Cir. 1992). In this case, Musinger discloses mounting a stent upon an expandable member having a length greater than the length of the stent (col. 7, line 20); covering the stent and expandable member with a moveable sheath and Roberts teaches a catheter assemble system including a stent and sheath/constraint where in the sheath/constraint is capable of constraining the balloon so that it may be progressively incrementally inflated.

Conclusion

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
